The Mission of the Holy Spirit in the Church

From "The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church," Second Vatican Council

When the Son completed the work with which the Father had entrusted Him on earth, the Holy Spirit was sent on the day of Pentecost to sanctify the Church unceasingly, and thus enable believers to have access to the Father through Christ in the one Spirit. He is the Spirit of life, the fountain of water welling up to give eternal life. Through Him the Father gives life to men, dead because of sin, until He raises up their mortal bodies in Christ.

The Spirit dwells in the Church and in the hearts of the faithful as in a temple. He prays in them and bears witness in them to their adoption as sons. He leads the Church into all truth and gives it unity in communion and in service. He endows it with different hierarchical and charismatic gifts, directs it by their means, and enriches it with his fruits.

By the power of the Gospel He enables the Church to grow young, perpetually renews it, and leads it to complete union with its Bridegroom. For the Spirit and the Bride say to the Lord Jesus, "Come!" In this way the Church reveals itself as a people whose unity has its source in the unity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The whole company of the faithful, who have an anointing by the Holy Spirit, cannot err in faith. They manifest this distinctive characteristic of theirs in the supernatural instinct of faith ("sensus fidei") of the whole people when, from the bishops to the most ordinary lay person among the faithful, they display a universal agreement on matters of faith and morals.

This instinct of faith is awakened and kept in being by the Spirit of truth. Through it the people of God hold indefectibly to the faith once delivered to the saints, penetrate it more deeply by means of right judgment, and apply it more perfectly in their lives. They do all this under the guidance of the sacred teaching office; by faithful obedience to it they receive, not the word of men, but in truth the word of God.

Moreover, the Holy Spirit not only sanctifies and guides God's people by the Sacraments and the ministries, and enriches it with virtues, but He also distributes special graces among the faithful of every state of life, assigning His gifts to each as He chooses. By means of these special gifts He equips them and makes them eager for various activities and responsibilities that benefit the Church in its renewal or its increase, in accordance with the text: To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for a good purpose.

These charisms, the simpler and more widespread, as well as the most outstanding, should be accepted with a sense of gratitude and consolation, since in a very special way they answer and serve the needs of the Church.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Today we are at the fiftieth day of the Easter celebration: seven weeks of seven days, a week of weeks, now culminating in a festive fiftieth day. While the liturgical color of the Easter season is gold, on this last day we have red. For the first thousand years of the church, there were no firm rules for using colors. Only wealthy churches could afford a full array of colors, and most places used the best vestments, no matter the color, for the greatest feasts. The Church spelled out an exact plan for color, including red for Pentecost, only in 1570, but local differences held on until the 1800s.

Color experts tell us that red is a “hot” color, best used for fast-paced, upbeat, active experiences. It is hard to be neutral before red, as any matador will tell you. It invites commitment, draws you in. It is a stimulating color, engaging the eye, stirring hunger. It is the most fitting color for this day when we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit into our lives, a dynamic presence overturning neutrality in favor of passion and commitment.

TELL YOUR SENATOR TO VOTE "NO" ON SB 360

The California Senate voted 30-2 on May 24, 2019, on Senate Bill 360, which would force priests to disclose information concerning the sexual abuse of minors that they hear in confession. The California bishops have been urging lawmakers to strengthen and clarify mandated reporting requirements while maintaining the traditional protections for "penitential communications." But the bill voted out of the Senate today now protects the seal of the confessional—except in cases where a priest is hearing another priest's confession or in cases where a priest is hearing the confession of a co-worker.

In response to this vote, Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles issued the following statement:

"I am deeply disappointed with today's Senate vote on SB 360. I continue to believe we can strengthen mandated reporting laws to protect children's safety while at the same time preserving the sanctity of penitential communications. My brother bishops and I will continue to work with our lawmakers in the Assembly, and I urge Catholics to continue to pray and make your voices heard on this issue, which is so vital to our faith and religious freedom."

PLEASE TELL YOUR STATE SENATOR TO VOTE "NO" ON SB 360

The Bishops of California are urging Catholics to oppose SB 360, which would force priests to disclose what they heard in confession. We know that can NEVER happen! Priests will NEVER disclose what they hear in confession. We ask all Catholics to tell your State Senators that we oppose the government interfering in our right to practice our faith. Call them today! Sign a letter opposing SB 360 by going to www.archla.org/keeptheseal. For more information, go to www.la-archdiocese.org.

VOX VITAE

Educating, empowering and spiritually nurturing people to actively be a voice for life.

Vox Vitae Catholic Pro-life Camp will be held here at St. Therese from June 23 to June 28. Both Teens and Adults are invited to attend! Join Bishop O'Connell, Matt Walsh, Doug Barry, Pam Stenzel, Astrid Bennett Gutierrez, and many more dynamic speakers at this week-long Day Camp for teens AND three Evening Camp programs for adults.

Attending Vox Vitae Camp is one of the best gifts you can give yourself and your Teen. You will learn how to value and defend your Catholic faith and to live it out. Your son or daughter will understand that they can live chastely, with the grace of God, and that they are not too young to lead the charge to end abortion in our lifetime. This helps them to withstand peer pressure, promote the Culture of Life from conception to natural death, and become leaders in their parishes and communities.

They will also make friends at camp that share their values—one of the best ways to help them stay faithful. Don't miss this precious opportunity!

Bishop David G. O'Connell endorses Vox Vitae's Teen and Adult camps, saying: "Let's work together to prepare a whole new generation of youth who will be Pro-Life. This is why Vox Vitae Pro-Life Camp is so important. I encourage you to send your youth to participate. We need our youth to love life and to know how to Be A Voice For Life."

Go to www.VoxVitae.org for more information or call (213) 395-8977.

COME TO US, SPIRIT OF HOLINESS

Holy Spirit, you banish fear from our hearts; you bear witness in us that we are children of God; we pray to you: Remove from our hearts the spirit of slaves; place in us the spirit of adopted children to make us cry out, Abba, Father!

-Fr. Lucien Deiss, CSSp

HAVE YOU FOUND A ROSARY IN THE CHURCH

or on the church grounds? A Parishioner is looking for a SILVER ROSARY she left in the church within the last weeks. The rosary has GREAT SENTIMENTAL VALUE (given to her by her mom). If you found it, please drop it off at the office (you may even drop it into the mail slot to the right of the office door).

No questions asked!
